According to asbpe.org, “The Azbees honor the best in business-to-business media, recognizing outstanding work by B2B, trade, association and professional publications. One of the most competitive award programs for trade media, the Azbees highlight editorial, online and design excellence within magazines, newsletters, social and digital media.”

Content development, quality, and relevancy is of utmost importance at Frontline, with an emphasis on digital first. The many people who contribute to the editorial creation, digital and print design, multimedia innovation, and marketing research – working with authors, opinion leaders, and advisory boards – continually show professionalism and expertise as they strive to produce a depth and breadth of content that meets the evolving needs of our omnichannel readers. FMC is honored to have been recognized by the American Society of Business Publication Editors.
